A Gem in the heart of Westport

Wyatt's Way. So there you are, you've just arrived in the picturesque town of Westport and discovered St Patrick sitting atop the Octagon in front of Wyatt's place. Intrigued, you ramble into his intimate home, where his family greet you with a warm Irish welcome. Later, having ensconced yourself in one of Wyatt's comfy rooms, you descend the staircase and head for the Cobbler's Bar, to savour the authentic traditional atmosphere of a genuine artisan workshop, where worn-out shoes and antique artifacts conceal secrets that have spanned generations of craftsmen.

In James Wyatt's Brasserie, a havn for true lovers of art, the experience of simple, ultra tasty fare, delights you and your fellow guests, before you venture to the Courtyard to while away a balmy night under the stars, in the company of an eclectic group of people that, like Wyatt, you will come to call friends.

Then, leaving Wyatt's place, on the pathway of a thousand pilgrims to the shops, nightlife and culture that Westport has to offer, you contently explore the delights of Ireland's tidiest town, thankful that Wyatt has made a new friend of you.

Converted, you say, it's Wyatt's way from now on.

May this house to every guest...
